CHAMPION ZENYATTA IS THE MORNING STAR AT DEL MAR

Regal as ever, two-time Eclipse Award older female Zenyatta set hoof on Del Mar's Polytrack surface late in this morning's training period and drew the usual awestruck response from onlookers around the racetrack.

She took one gallop around the one-mile oval with regular exercise rider Steve Willard. But she did it on her terms, as is her style, pausing after coming onto the track near the 6-furlong pole for nearly 10 minutes before turning to gallop.

All the while, her ears were up and she was busy looking over the landscape, giving the impression she knew she was mistress of all she surveyed.

The massive mare, the only female to win the Breeders' Cup Classic (2009 at Santa Anita), galloped blithely down the backstretch as Willard guided her along. "She got over it really good," the upbeat Willard said as she was returned to trainer John Shirreffs' barn to get her bath and cool out.

Shirreffs had Zenyatta vanned from his Hollywood Park base this morning, one day earlier than originally announced. She went to the track about 9:15, right on her routine target.

PAIR OF PACIFIC CLASSIC PROSPECTS PUT IN GOOD WORKS

Hollywood Gold Cup winner Awesome Gem breezed for the first time Tuesday since his July 10 victory as he prepares for his fourth straight run at Del Mar's signature $1-million, Grade I Pacific Classic on Saturday, August 28.

The 7-year-old gelded son of Awesome Again turned 4 furlongs in 48.60 on the main track, leaving trainer Craig Dollase still beaming this morning. "He went great and came back really good," the enthusiastic trainer said, adding that another workout is tentatively scheduled for early next week.

Crowded House, fourth in Del Mar's opening weekend Grade I Eddie Read on the turf and a possible prospect for the Pacific Classic, worked an easy half-mile in 50.80 for trainer Ben Cecil this morning.

POSSIBLE BEST PAL FAVORITE WORKS WITH GUSTO

A confident David Hofmans was a happy trainer this morning following prized 2-year-old J P's Gusto's sharp workout on Monday. The winner of Hollywood Park's Willard Proctor Memorial Stakes and the Grade III Hollywood Juvenile Championship is expected to be one of the favorites for the Grade II, $150,000 Best Pal Stakes on Sunday.

The juvenile son of Successful Appeal went 6 furlongs in 1:13.20 on the main track. "It was a nice work," Hofmans said of his double stakes winner. "He seems to like the track; he gets over it well. We're ready to go."

SHORE LINES – Trainer Jim Cassidy worked his two Del Mar stakes-winners, The Usual Q. T. and Evening Jewel, on the Jimmy Durante Turf Course Wednesday morning. The Usual Q.T., winner of the Grade I Eddie Read July 24, went 5 furlongs in 1:01.80, and San Clemente Handicap winner Evening Jewel went the same distance in a quicker 1:00.80 ... Apprentice rider Jesus Velazquez posted his first win at Del Mar aboard Ranger Heartley in Sunday's fifth race. That's the good news. The possible bad news: It was his fifth career win so he loses three pounds on the "bug" weight scale, making him a seven-pounder ... Both Joel Rosario and Martin Garcia will be in West Virginia Saturday to ride in the West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer Park. Rosario will be aboard Skipshot, the Jerry Hollendorfer-trained winner of Hollywood Park's Swaps Stakes, and Garcia will ride Concord Point, Iowa Derby winner, for Bob Baffert.

ANALYSIS

By BRAD FREE

BEST BET: Princess Beau K (4th race)

FIRST RACE:

1.Amazombie 2. Tropic Storm 3.Details R Sketchy

AMAZOMBIE is 2-for-2 since being gelded. He won a highly rated Calbred N1X one back, and followed with a sharp open N1X victory vs. next-out winner Raetodandty. AMAZOMBIE ran well on the Del Mar turf last summer, and hits the meet as the sharpest in the lineup. Off the pace and into the winner's circle. TROPIC STORM is the most accomplished horse in the field, and if the back-class comebacker is ready to fire first start in nearly two years he could win it up front. The multiple graded stakes-placed gelding returns with a $62.5k claim tag and a workout pattern that suggests it is a "go" first start back for Craig Dollase. DETAILS R SKETCHY will be rolling late; he finished a troubled second in a similar N2X on this course one year ago. SKY VICTORY can improve second start back.

SECOND RACE:

1.Miss Picaboo 2. American Story 3.Russian River

This special-weight for maidens is the right spot to take a shot with recent maiden-40 runner-up MISS PICABOO. The improving filly finished second in her maiden-25 debut, improved second time out, and now makes her first start since being claimed by trainer A.C. Avila. Her fast works on this surface suggest she remains on an upward pattern. AMERICAN STORY is a half-sister to multiple G1 winner Seventh Street, making her debut off a solid work pattern for trainer Bob Baffert. With her pedigree, works and connections, she should come out firing. RUSSIAN RIVER was purchased following her fourth-place debut early this year at Fair Grounds, a race that produced two next-out winners; 'RIVER makes her first start in California for new trainer Mike Mitchell. LEA THE PUNISHER and FRENCH COUSIN are new shooters from top stables.

THIRD RACE:

1.Melbisha 2. The Great Atlantic 3.Fleet Royale

Runner-up three weeks ago in a similar maiden-40 that was won by the pacesetter, come-from-behinder MELBISHA gets a more favorable pace scenario for her second try running long. This race has plenty of suspect front-runners/sprinters, and the pace should be legit. That suits

Racing Daily Form

Del Mar ANALYSIS

MELBISHA, whose runner-up finish last out was flattered when winner Westwood Pride returned Friday to finish a creditable second in a N1X. THE GREAT ATLANTIC finished a closing third in a $50k claimer for 3-year-old fillies; that class level is roughly equivalent to this maiden-40 starter. Like the top choice, 'ATLANTIC can finish. FLEET ROYALE never did establish position last time and finished nowhere. She stretches out for her new stable; jockey Paul Atkinson has ridden a few front-running longshot turf winners this year. FLEET ROYALE will be forwardly placed.

FOURTH RACE:

1.Princess Beau K 2. Mo Cheese 3.Dancing Lauren

PRINCESS BEAU K returns to the level (maiden-25) of her runner-up finish one start back. A creditable third against maiden-40 Calbreds last out, she has enough tactical speed to be forwardly placed in a sprint that has very little speed. MO CHEESE returns from a 15-month layoff with a solid recent workout pattern for trainer Rafael Becerra. MO CHEESE ran well against tougher prior to her layoff and is qualified to win this. DANCING LAUREN ran poorly in her recent comeback, but her second-place in January (her second career start) puts her in the hunt. The no speed-gray will be running late.

FIFTH RACE:

1.Pokomoke 2. Wood Art 3.Look to the Sky

WOOD ART is likely to start favored while taking a steep drop to $10k claiming. However, the selection is low-level win machine POKOMOKE. She has won four of her last seven starts racing mostly at the bottom, she handles all surfaces and distances, and has a winning desire. The stretch-running can wear them down. WOOD ART has been facing better, but seems to have lost interest in winning. She is repeatedly there or thereabouts against $20- to $25k claimers, but has not win since October. Her speed figures suggests she is the best horse, but POKOMOKE has the will to win. LOOK TO THE SKY, one-two in six of eight this year, returns from a two-month freshening while making her first start since being claimed by Peter Miller. Her speed figures are good, and she should get a good trip.

SIXTH RACE:

1.Kim's Leading Man 2. Quintons Flash 3.Dr. Chen

KIM'S LEADING MAN was gelded prior to his June 26 comeback, and steadily improved since. Runner-up two weeks ago against a similar field in a race won by the pacesetter, the Barry Abrams-trained son of Unusual Heat now meets a field with lots of speed to flatter his closing kick. Off the pace and into the winner's circle. QUINTONS FLASH made the lead setting slow fractions last time, yet he still got nailed. But he finished nearly four lengths clear of third, and was claimed by John Sadler. The past four years at Del Mar, Sadler is 4-for-6 with maiden-claimers first off the claim. 'FLASH won't get an easy lead, and he is buried inside, but QUINTONS FLASH is lightly raced (two starts) and likely to improve. DR. CHEN is the speed of the field. He set a swift pace two weeks ago and tired to fifth, but he seems to be improving race by race and has a shot to lead gate to wire.

SEVENTH RACE:

1.Izshelegal 2. Alienation 3.Final Mesa

IZSHELEGAL made her debut in a tough spot, the Landaluce Stakes. She ran super. She trailed early, then powered from last to second while needing farther than six furlongs. The second-start filly get an additional half-furlong, and with a race under her belt should move up a ton. ALIENATION defeated the fastest 2-year-old filly this year (Pedaltothemedal) by a nose when they debuted in a highly rated five-furlong turf race last month. The race was validated when Pedaltothemedal returned July 25 to win a fast (84 Beyer) maiden race. The question for ALIENATION is, can she reproduce her grass form on synthetic? Rock Hard Tens have done best on grass. ALIENATION benefits by the additional distance of this six and one-half furlong race. Her trainer Bob Baffert also entered good debut winner A Z WARRIOR. The stranger danger is FINAL MESA, runaway winner at Keeneland, Delaware and Woodbine. She rolls into town with a 90 Beyer last out. Leading rider Joel Rosario worked her a half-mile here over the wekend, and who knows how good she is? Her three wins were by a combined 20 lengths. A Z WARRIOR wired a decent field first out; DAWNIE MACHO won the Landaluce over the top choice and got a favorable outside draw.

EIGHTH RACE:

1.Shine'n Time 2. Cenizo 3.Precious Song

SHINE'N TIME drops from an $8k claimer vs. older (won by race-5 selection Pokomoke), into a $12.5k claimer restricted to 3-year-old fillies. SHINE'N TIME dueled up front and weakened the final eighth in her last start, but she has been effective rallying from slightly off the pace. She could tuck into a cozy trip sitting just off the speed, and get first run when (if) the leaders melt. CENIZO continues to get bet, and continues to be foiled. She is in good form, however, and despite the rail could get a trip similar to the top choice. Front-runner PRECIOUS SONG meets easier and insures a swift pace. So does YASUDA on the far outside. This race sets up for a closer, even a low-figure closer such as NOTHING TO FEAR.

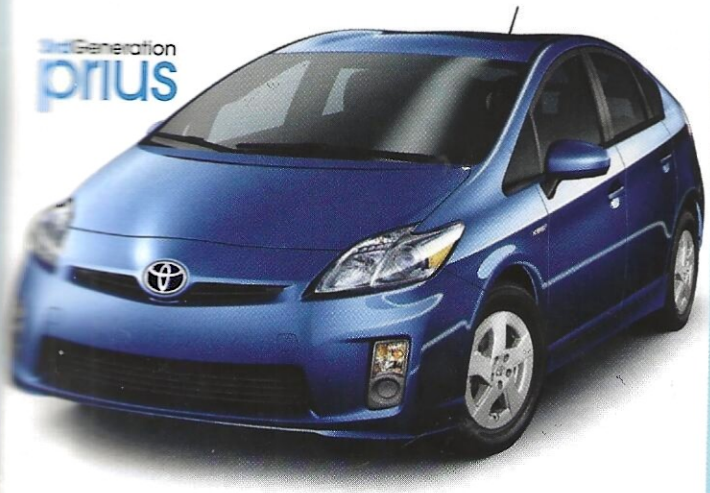
TOYOTA
moving forward

At 50 miles per gallon...



Prius is furlongs ahead of the competition.

In fact, the 2010 Prius is America's most fuel-efficient car. And with 70% fewer smog-forming emissions, everyone wins.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY TOYOTA DEALERS
WE'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES.
